CHRISSY MOY

Chrissy Moy is one of Australia's top vocal performers having worked with an elite cast of Australian and International musical talent. Chrissy began her career at a young age performing with 'The Moy Sisters' on daytime and primetime television. She later went on to work on shows such as Australian Idol, The Voice Kids, and has toured nationally and internationally with Neil Sedaka, Gina Jeffreys and Peter Allen.

THE EARLY YEARS

- Began performing on stage as a singer and dancer at age 7.
- Performed as part of a group at Westfield Shopping Centres.

THE MOY SISTERS

- Performed with "The Moy Sister" as a trio at a professional level in clubs and nightclubs.
- Made regular appearances on TV shows such as: The Don Lane Show, The Mike Walsh Show and Midday with Ray Martin.
- 1985 - The Moy Sisters were the resident vocal group for the Midday Show Orchestra alongside artists such as Don McLean, Tom Jones, John Farnham and Keith Urban and this continued for 12 years.
- 1986 - Established my solo career and began composing my own material. I was signed by Festival Records the same year and released the single "Dreamland" produced by at Studio 301.
- 1987 - The Moy Sisters were hired as the backing vocalists for Eric Clapton on the Melbourne leg of his tour.

THE NINETIES

- 1990 – Toured with Peter Allen across the Hilton Circuit performing duets by Peter Allen and Melissa Manchester.
- 1995 – Toured with Neil Sedaka across the Hilton Circuit.
- 1995 – Toured with Margaret Urlich and recorded backing vocals on her album "The Deepest Blue"
- 1996 – Recorded vocals on two albums for Gina Jeffreys, followed by a state-wide live tour including Tamworth Music Festival. Additionally I worked closely with producer Garth Porter (Sherbert) on Gina's "Up Close" album.
- 1997 – Toured Great Britain and Japan with Neil Sedaka performing at the Royal Albert Hall and Glasgow Apollo.
- 1998 – performed at the Bicentennial Australia Day Concert (attended by the Prince and Princess of Wales) at the Sydney Entertainment Centre with Olivia Newton John and Peter Allen.

Y2K

- 2004 - Recorded vocals on Marcia Hines' album "Hinesight", followed with a statewide live tour.
- 2004 – Performed backing vocals on hit TV series "Australian Idol"
- 2006 – Was the vocal coach for "It Takes Two" working closely with Kate Richie and Erica Heynatz on weekly show performances
- 2007 – Performed in the Carols in the Domain Orchestra as a vocalist and have continued to perform at this annual televised event to now. Artists that I have worked with at this event include: Jessica Mauboy, Paulini, Josh Groban, Tina Arena and Dami Im

THE LAST 7 YEARS

- 2014 – Vocal coach on "The Voice Kids", working with contestants on their song choices, microphone technique and performance skills for live TV. Collaborated with Delta Goodrem, Mel B and the Madden Brothers.
- Performed with various tribute shows touring Australia and New Zealand including: Roy Orbison Tribute Show, Elvis to the Max and the Everley Brothers Tribute.
