

Cindy Delaney's professional dance career included work in a variety of mediums including; film, television, opera and contemporary dance, culminating in a coveted nomination in the Green Room Awards for best female dancer in a supporting role. Since 1993 Cindy has focussed on her career as a Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) ballet teacher and has spent six years as a member of the RAD Victorian and Tasmanian regional advisory panel. She has a Bachelor of Arts (Dance) from the Victorian College of the Arts and is currently completing a Bachelor of Education at Swinburne University Online.