

Elise Frawley
ARAD, RTS, RAD Examiner, BA/BEd (Newcastle).

Elise has been a teacher with the MWM since 1997. With over 20 years experience as an RAD teacher she has developed many successful dancers during this time. Elise played an essential role in the establishment of the National College of Dance and has a wealth of qualifications including a B.A Arts/Education and Certificate IV in Assessment and Training, plus is a registered Pilates instructor with the Pilates Institute of Australasia. Since becoming and RAD examiner Elise has enjoyed travelling both regionally and internationally for the Academy and is passionate about nurturing a love of dance among students whilst encouraging safe dance and technical understanding.
