

Pamela Cramp

Pam has had extensive training in all genres of the Performing Arts Industry. She is an accredited teacher in LGTDA & GWT Tap, AICD & RAD Classical Ballet, Contemporary & Lyrical, Jazz, AASCF Cheer, Musical Theatre, Acrobatics and Singing.

A successful studio owner of over 30 years, Pamela is now a freelance teacher and works at some of the most prestigious academies across Newcastle and the Central Coast. She is also a proud member of the ADA - Australian Adjudicators Association.

Pam is the competition Director and owner of The Ritz and Glitz Dance Challenge in Newcastle which has been in operation for over 16 years.

Pam has been awarded many accolades for her choreography over the years and was honoured by being invited to the American Dance Awards in 2018 as an Australian Ambassador for her work within the industry. She is most proud of her continued work with children with disabilities and was awarded a Citizen of the Year award for her work within this sector. Pam is a proud ambassador for the DACAU- Dancers Against Cancer Australia in which her former studio was the very first Australian "HOPE" studio to raise awareness and funds for this very important cause.

Pam is always humbled to be asked to adjudicate. She is incredibly passionate about the entertainment industry and educating the next generation of performers. In her eyes, every competitor is a Star, and she understands the many hours of perseverance and practice that is put into a stage performance.

Pam wishes all competitors the very best of luck and cannot wait to see you bring your best performances to the stage.
