

ANTOINETTE LANGSHAW-BARNES

Trained as a dancer from an early age in many styles of dance, including appearances with the Australian Ballet as a child guest artist, Antoinette went on to work all over the world, performing as a professional dancer, with major international artists, before retiring from the stage and continuing her teaching career as a Dance Teacher with her sister (Bernadette Langshaw-Clark).

As a part of Langshaw Dancity Teaching Faculty, Antoinette was involved in performances at the Sydney Opera House, Sydney Town Hall and many other prestigious venues. With a special interest in young students, Antoinette assisted them in preparing for RAD and ISTD exams and Eisteddfods.

With two children (a boy and a girl) that both had lengthy careers themselves as professional dancers, demonstrating how Antoinette has been successful in fostering young talent.

Antoinette has maintained her interest and links to dancing through her children and other members of the family, throughout her life.

Antoinette has returned to her first-love of dancing and now teaches and dances as part of a mature-age ladies dance company in Wollongong, that encourages its members to dance for fun, fitness and friendship.

She is delighted to once again be invited to be an adjudicator at the St George Eisteddfod.
