

BIO:

Victor was born in Barcelona and began his dance training at the Instituto del Teatro. He furthered his education at The John Cranko School in Stuttgart before graduating from the Royal Ballet School in 2008. Upon graduation, Victor joined Scottish Ballet, where he danced for 10 years as a professional dancer and was promoted to Soloist in 2014.

In 2018, Victor joined Sydney Dance Company as a company dancer. Now expanding his role as Guest Rehearsal director. He also trains and mentors the Pre-Professional Year, combining his passion for performance with a commitment to nurturing the next generation of dancers.

During his years of professional experience, Victor has danced all around the globe, performing in prestigious venues and collaborating with renowned companies. In addition, he currently guest teaches and choreographs internationally, sharing his expertise and artistic vision with dance communities worldwide. Victor is also an RAD certified teacher, further enhancing his ability to inspire and develop future dancers.